ABOUT THE OFFICE

Our Hong Kong office, which opened in 1993, was one of the first opened by a major Wall Street firm in Hong Kong and is now our largest non-U.S. office. It currently consists of 11 partners, 11 counsel and more than 70 associates, and has been involved in many of the most important and high-profile capital markets, M&A/private equity transactions and litigation and enforcement matters in China and elsewhere in Asia.

Our Hong Kong office routinely represents issuers and underwriters in many important, and frequently precedent-setting, cross-border initial public offerings, convertible debt, high-yield debt and other securities offerings. Our work has included many of the landmark transactions involving the privatization and listing of Chinese state-owned enterprises and we are a clear leader in Asian high-yield debt offerings.

Our M&A/private equity practice covers all major countries in Asia and a broad range of industries. Together with our Tokyo and Beijing offices, our lawyers in Hong Kong have extensive experience advising investors on matters in Japan, Korea, China, Taiwan, India and Southeast Asia.

Our market-leading litigation and enforcement practice consists of 4 partners, 4 counsel and a team of more than 10 associates. The team works with the firm's top-tier Hong Kong corporate and capital markets lawyers to provide compliance and corporate governance advice to clients.

Many of our regional practices operate out of Hong Kong and Tokyo such as our Taiwan and Korea practices, and our Southeast Asia practice, which covers key jurisdictions, including Thailand, Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, the Philippines and Sri Lanka. We have teams of lawyers who specifically focus on these regions and actively travel across the continent to service clients.

Our lawyers in Hong Kong are fluent in English and more than 80% are also fluent in Chinese. Other languages spoken include Korean, Taiwanese, Malay, French, German, Hindi and Spanish. Lawyers in our Hong Kong office are admitted to practice Hong Kong, U.S. and English law.

Clients in Hong Kong include leading international, Hong Kong-based and other Chinese investment banks as well as Hong Kong-listed companies and large conglomerates. Our client coverage also includes corporates across Asia-Pacific as well as multinational companies with interests in expanding into the region.

Recognized for Excellence in China and Throughout Asia-Pacific

Latham earned the "Innovative Firm in Asia" recognition for its work on groundbreaking deals in the Financial Times' 2016 "Asia-Pacific Innovative Lawyers" report, and was named to Asian Legal Business' "Innovation List" in 2016.

In the 2018 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific, Latham received a number of commendations for practice areas based in Greater China, including:

- Banking & Finance Interviewees praise the team's "ability to act commercially and identify commercial risks in addition to legal risks," adding that "the firm makes a decision and does not 'sit on the fence'."
- Capital Markets "It's very pleasant working with them, an experienced team...Their Chinese language capabilities are very important to me." Feedback highlights the firm's deal-making approach, with a client noting: "I'm highly impressed with their technical knowledge and ability to appropriately manage corporate issuers towards a successful and commercially viable outcome." Clients also praise the group's level of organisation, with one saying: "A very outstanding team with strong co-ordination and collaboration. They demonstrate very high efficiency in execution and each team member has high standards of professional ethics and high levels of expertise."
- Corporate/M&A "We are very impressed by Latham's outstanding quality of services and professionalism. They have demonstrated a broad spectrum of capabilities and extensive experience across a wide range of practices such as M&A and corporate finance," one interviewee remarks, further stating: "The team is extremely competent and highly knowledgeable." Another market source lists the team's key strengths while acting on one recent matter: "They were very good and knowledgeable on US regulations, and were also aware of the differences and nuances within a Chinese environment."
- Private Equity "The team is very strong and has good connections to subject matter experts in global offices where required,"
- International Arbitration Clients are quick to highlight the team's dedication to service, with one source praising its "meticulous working attitude" and adding that it is "highly efficient and duly delivers on work, responds to feedback, collects all kinds of information, and follows up on the case." Certain sources highlight the "impressive bilingual capacity of the team" and describe the team as being "completely at home serving Chinese clients and understanding their strategic needs." Other commentators praise the firm for its ability "to produce innovative solutions to meet the demands of the case."
- Litigation Clients commend the team's responsiveness and ability to meet their needs. "They always meet my expectations and sometimes even go a step further," one client reports, adding that "the response time to all queries is impeccable." Another

About Our Hong Kong Office

Sidley is one of the few international law firms to have maintained on-the-ground capabilities to serve clients in Asia Pacific for more than 30 years. The firm now has close to 200 legal professionals based in six offices in the region - Hong Kong, Shanghai, Beijing, Singapore, Sydney and Tokyo. Our lawyers provide U.S., Hong Kong, English, Singapore and Japanese law advice to clients where and when they need it.

Established in 1994 and located in the financial hub of Asia, Sidley's Hong Kong office offers a comprehensive range of legal services to international, regional and local clients from all sectors of commerce and industry, including financial services, energy and natural resources, life sciences, technology, telecommunications and media, consumer products and real estate, as well as government bodies and agencies. Our team in Hong Kong includes more than 80 lawyers who are qualified to practice Hong Kong, English, U.S. and Singapore law.

Capital Markets: Our corporate finance group is one of the largest and most active teams in Hong Kong. We have a strong capital markets practice in Hong Kong focusing on public and private offerings in debt and equity securities. In recent years, we have handled more than 200 IPOs on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong. Sidley was named as the number one international law firm (tied) advising on Hong Kong IPOs, based on the number of transactions (The Lawyer, March 2014). As we practice Hong Kong, English, U.S. and Singapore law, we are also qualified to work on dual listings and other cross-border securities transactions. We have extensive experience in SEC-registered offerings, as well as listings on the New York Stock Exchange, NASDAQ, the London Stock Exchange, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, the Singapore Exchange and, in conjunction with local advisers, stock exchanges in Jakarta and Korea. We also have a well-regarded debt capital markets practice, including a top-tier high-yield debt capital markets practice, as recognized by the key legal directories. Since 2014, Sidley has been counsel to issuers and underwriters in more than 40 high-yield debt capital markets transactions in Asia Pacific, totaling approximately US$15 billion.

Mergers & Acquisitions: Our corporate finance lawyers in Hong Kong also represent acquirers, targets and financial advisers in the structuring, negotiation and financing of domestic and cross-border M&A transactions across multiple industries. We regularly represent private and public companies in connection with acquiring minority and majority interests in domestic corporations, as well as representing clients with respect to their interests in business entities outside the region. In cross-border transactions, we often advise clients in all matters related to their M&A, including financing, joint venture agreements, international trade, litigation and regulatory and compliance issues (including CFIUS matters in the U.S.). Several M&A transactions on which we have worked are award-winning or have been named "Deal of the Year." In addition, Sidley serves clients in all issues faced by private equity, venture capital and hedge funds in the acquisition, financing and disposition of portfolio companies. The firm has extensive experience in the structuring and negotiation of private equity, venture capital and M&A transactions.

Private Equity: Our Private Equity lawyers in Hong Kong advise clients on every aspect of a broad range of domestic and cross-border private equity transactions, including leveraged buyouts, going-private transactions, growth capital investments, venture capital investments, PIPEs and a variety of other acquisitions and financings. We represent private equity sponsors, the private equity arms of financial institutions and other organizations, and hedge funds in these matters. In addition, we regularly advise private equity-sponsored portfolio companies, assisting them in all their legal needs, including add-on acquisitions, financings, recapitalizations, investments, liquidity events and other extraordinary transactions.

Investment Funds: Our investment funds practice is one of the largest funds groups of any law firm in Hong Kong and one of the most recognized in the region. The team has won several awards and is ranked top-tier, as listed by the leading, independent legal publications. We also have a proven track record of working on some of the most innovative and ground-breaking funds transactions in recent years. The team covers the full spectrum of investment fund matters and a comprehensive range of related services spanning hedge fund formation, private equity fund formation, real estate fund formation, regulatory and compliance matters as well as downstream investment.

Dispute Resolution and Regulatory: Sidley's dispute resolution and regulatory team has been consistently ranked among the top contentious practices in Hong Kong. The team handles corporate and commercial disputes related to insolvency, construction, insurance, life sciences, shipping, international trade, IP and employment matters through litigation or arbitration. The team also provides advice on regulatory and compliance issues, including those related to privacy, data protection, payments, FCPA matters and other corporate investigations.

Finance: In Hong Kong, our finance lawyers offer a wide range of legal services related to structured finance, asset-based finance, syndicated and leveraged finance. We have extensive experience with every major asset class and many esoteric asset classes, company representations, real estate finance and REITs, workouts and restructurings transactions. Our finance lawyers have worked on some of the most significant finance transactions in the industry.

Structured Finance and Securitization: Sidley has been at the forefront of the creation of many structured finance products. We have deeply experienced lawyers who understand the structured finance, project finance and infrastructure markets regionally as well as globally. Our Asia Pacific Managing Partner, Tom Albrecht, who is based in Hong Kong, led the firm's Global Finance practice for many years and has spent most of his 30+ year career advising clients on structured finance, securitization, syndicated and leveraged finance and asset-based debt finance. Recently, Tom's team advised China Orient Asset Management (International) (COAMI) in the US$165 million securitization of a portfolio of loans and bonds owned by COAMI's affiliates. We also represented Temasek Holdings, a Singapore state investment company, in the listing of the Astrea III PE bonds which were the first listed private equity bonds in Singapore with a diversified portfolio. This landmark matter was widely recognized as a significant milestone in the development of Singapore's bond market.

We are among the very few international law firms who are able to represent all of the major participants in public and private CLO, CDO and loan financing transactions. Our lawyers represent collateral managers, arrangers and investors across the full capital structure from senior debt to equity with a particular reputation for representing collateral managers of all sizes.

We advise market participants in all aspects of the buying, selling and managing of portfolios of loans as well as every aspect of lending and financing against loan assets, either through public capital markets or through private financing channels. Our global CLO and project finance and infrastructure groups are able to draw upon a deep experience of the market practice and regulations governing these assets, complemented by market-leading practices in the wider regulatory, tax, derivatives and corporate areas.

Project Finance: We also work on numerous finance projects, including those related to infrastructure, energy, power, alternative generation, transmission, oil and gas pipelines, biofuels, gas-to-liquids, petrochemicals, metals and mining, transportation and telecommunications. The team represents project sponsors, senior and subordinated lenders, equity investors, construction contractors and service providers. Globally, Sidley lawyers advised on more than 50 projects involving energy/infrastructure in the last 10 years with a combined value of more than US$30 billion.

Energy: In the energy arena, we represent clients in virtually every aspect of the industry, including upstream oil and gas developers, oilfield service companies, pipelines, electric utilities, merchant electric transmission companies, independent power producers, alternative energy developers, suppliers and contractors, energy trading companies, and the financial institutions that serve companies in all of these industry segments.

Lawyers in Sidley's Hong Kong office speak fluent Cantonese, Mandarin and other Chinese dialects, Tagalog, Bahasa Malaysia and Hindi, as well as English. Sidley's Hong Kong office is located in Two International Finance Centre, situated in the central business district of Hong Kong, overlooking Victoria Harbour.

"They are very knowledgeable about market trends, and they anticipate needs and problems and bring that to us in advance."

- Chambers China 2018 (quoting a client)

With over two decades of leadership in the Korean legal market, the Firm's Hong Kong-based Korea Practice is a top choice among many clients for Korea-related transactions. We have amassed an impressive track record in Korea due to our proven excellence based on experience, quality client service, efficiency and effectiveness.

Coordinating with the Firm's offices in Beijing, as well as Tokyo and our other offices worldwide, we are able to provide global reach in our advice on:

- · Cross-border mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures
- Inbound and outbound investments
- · Capital markets, including IPOs and debt offerings

Case 3:18-cr-00465-MMC Document 69-14 Filed 09/25/19 Page 24 of 31

- Private equity transactions
- · Private fund formation
- Banking and credit
- · Real estate
- Dispute resolution, arbitration, investigations and regulatory matters

Our work also takes us to Australia, India, Taiwan and Southeast Asia. Simpson Thacher's Hong Kong lawyers have a deep understanding of the region and how business is conducted in this part of the world.

MORE INFORMATION

Visitor's Guide

Established in 1992, Sullivan & Cromwell's Hong Kong office serves as a strategic point for significant transactions that involve Greater China and Asia Pacific companies or assets. The Firm also advises clients on significant cross-border transactions in the rest of Asia and elsewhere in the world.

Leveraging our deep insight of the Greater China and international markets as well as our resources around the world, we offer tailored advice to meet clients' commercial and business objectives in mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, corporate finance, private equity and project development and finance matters.

With nearly 30 years on-the-ground experience, S&C has been involved in numerous precedent-setting transactions in Greater China, including the first H-share listing by a Chinese company, the first Yankee bond offering by a Chinese state-owned company, the first-ever merger of two SEC-registered Chinese companies and the first-ever private sector merger between two Chinese companies.

We have a dedicated, highly skilled team of lawyers in S&C's Hong Kong and Beijing offices, who work as one integrated team to provide U.S., Hong Kong and English law advice to clients in Greater China, the Asia-Pacific region and around the world. Well trained as generalists within broad practice areas, our multilingual lawyers are familiar with navigating the challenges to bridge the cultural, language and legal gaps among different parties.
